

Vertical Hour Audience Reviews

1. Our group saw the Vertical Hour last night and we all loved it. For myself, I thought it was the best theatre experience I have had in some time. The acting was fantastic and the play itself so full of layers and food for thought. I just loved it. It fit my definition of what I like best in theatre - complexity of character and issues acted superbly. Bravo to you and the cast! Suzanne
2. Just a quick note to say how much I thoroughly enjoyed The Vertical Hour on Thursday night. I loved the play ... and I thought that everyone in the cast was great and perhaps one of the most even casts of the numerous United Player productions I have come to over the years.

So thank you all so much. Finally, I have sent an email to Colin Thomas [at the Straight] in hope that he might make time to get out to see the play.

All the best,
Cynthia Johnston
